

Inland Coalition on Aging

The Inland Coalition on Aging (ICA) brings together the expertise of diverse health care entities, community-based organizations, public officials, and stakeholders to better serve older adults, adults with disabilities, and caregivers in San Bernardino and Riverside Counties.

Join the Coalition Today!

Who Should Join?

- Nonprofit staff
- Businesses serving older adults & adults with disabilities
- City, County, and State Departments staff
- Senior Center staff
- Boards, councils, and commissions
- Disability Advocacy Organizations
- Caregiver agencies
- Housing Providers
- Transportation Agencies
- Health Plans
- Healthcare Organizations
- Hospitals
- Universities
- Employment agencies
- Social service agencies
- Foundations

The Coalition is committed to facilitating systems change across networks and developing improved integrated care and service delivery of long-term services and supports.

Join the Coalition today to stay informed and engaged. Membership is free to professionals who work with older adults, adults with disabilities, and/or caregivers.

Membership Includes:

- Updates on the development of the IE Master Plan for Aging
- Participation in regularly scheduled meetings
- Email updates with information and resources
- Access to ICA meetings, events, activities, and trainings
- Networking with colleagues
- United advocacy efforts

 Membership is only open to professionals affiliated with an organization, board members, councils, and commissioners.*

2022 - 2025 Coalition Focus:
Develop a Local Master Plan for Aging for the Inland Empire

We welcome your support!

Learn more about the Coalition and how to join at InlandAging.org

